

"It was so cute.

Yesterday Joey discovered the miracle of masking tape. He was covered in it.

He looked like a little mummy.

I wish I had a picture."

Be Ready.

If Jodys's mom had the KODAK ADVANTIX System, she'd have the picture. It's so convenient, it helps you capture the everyday moments you don't want to miss. And thanks to easy-to-use cameras and error-free drop-in loading, you get great pictures the way you want them, when you want them. Why miss special everyday moments? With the KODAK ADVANTIX System, you don't have to.

TAKE PICTURES, FURTHER™

Gift Ideas

Photos by Bill Holt and Andy Lyons Crafts by Laura Holtorf Collins

This seed, left casses you find every recore in Holding Patro, Cells has been trained in the faither Friesra off Coederine Folkheet. This means the need recope is protected and whole and metals had said and or fairne appeal. The faither Near Homes and Coederin Programs. © 2000 Memorith. Corporation and Estations Kodels. Commonly All right in mercan difficult in all 10 A. Findulated by Memorith. Integrand Commonly All right intermed. The faith is not 10 A. Findulated by Memorith. Integrand Commonly All right intermed. The control of the Commonly All right in the Common Revol. Cell and lake Patrum. Further, on windersick of Common Memorith. All photographs in Folkiday Plance Officers seeks for Commonly All photographs in Folkiday Plance Officers seeks and collections.

Kodak Picture CD

Get special BONUS software when you order HOLIDAY CREATIONS

Kodak Picture CD

Turn your pictures into holiday tags, gifts and more — it's easy with our special-edition Holiday Creations KODAK Picture CD. And, like every edition of KODAK Picture CD. you can also use it to reduce red-eye, zoom & crop and add captions, so you can make a good picture a great picture. Even share your pictures with e-mail. Order it when you drop off your film for processing at your favorite retailer offering KODAK Products.

For a free copy of the Holiday Creations KODAN PICTURE CD Demo, call 1:800-979-8268.
Offer expires 12/31/2000. Limit one per household.

P C

*While supplies last.

*White supplies last.

© Eastman Kodak Company, 2000. Kodak, PictureGuard and Take Pictures, Further are trademarks of Eastman Kodak Company.

Limited-Tin

Contents

Trims and Treasures pp 4-27

Deck your halls with treasured trimmings, made from photos of your most precious memories.

Treats to Make and Give pp 28-37

Share more than treats with loved ones this giving season share a bit of yourself.

Invitations and Stationery PP 44-51

Friends far and near will be smiling when the mailbox holds your most creative messages.

Wrapped In Memories pp 52-61

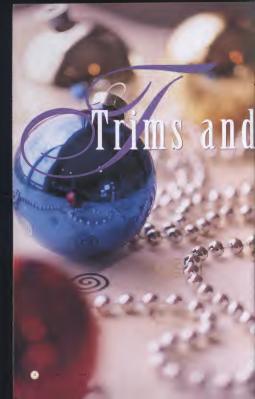

It's a wrap! There'll be no doubt who this one is for—or from—when the package is made of pictures.

Picture Perfect Presents pp 62-75

Give a gift that says "I love you" when you make it and share your favorite memories.

Christmas Gifts From Kodak pp 76-81

A gift from KODAK is a gift that keeps giving, during the holiday season and all through the new year.

Treasures

Deck the Halls!
Traditional holiday decorations take on a unique,
personalized sparkle when you combine them with your favorite family
photos.

onderful Wreaths

During the holiday season, put the spotlight on your circle of friends and family. Adorn a simple wreath with ribhons and photographs of the people you cherish.

treasured

What You'll Need

- plostic foom ring, 10 inches in diometer
- 1½-inch-wide white-ond-gold ribbon—4 yards for wropping the ring and 11/4 yards to make the how
- stroight pins
- ¼-inch burgundy ribbon—3½ vords
- 3%-inch-wide ivary-with-roses ribbon
- · glue gun ond glue stick
- 2½-inch-wide wire-edged gold ribbon for the how-11/4 inches
- photas
- double-sided tape
- · ossorted sheets of potterned poper
- odhesive phota corners

How to Make It

Wrap the ring with the white-and-gold ribbon, overlapping as you go. Pin the ends of the ribbon to the ring. Cut the burgundy ribbon in half lengthwise. Glue one end of each length beneath the white-and-gold ribbon. Criss-cross the ribbon around the ring, and secure the ends. Then wrap the rose ribbon around the ring, gluing the ends. Fashion a bow from the remaining ribbon and pin or glue it to the ring. Cut out the papers, leaving a border 1/4 inch larger than the photos. Press on the photo corners, and insert the photos, taping them on the back if necessary. Tape the photos to the wreath.

Farland of Memories

rows of photos. Let the happy faces of families and friends add a personal touch to the decorations in your home. Hang these colorful swags on a stairway, or in a hallway, where they'll warm the hearts of those who stop to look more closely.

Deck the halls with

What You'll Need

- photos
- stroight-edge scissors, pinking shears, and o poper punch
- brown-poper grocery bogs
- colored-print paper—use seosonol colors
 - double-sided tope
 - roffio, cut into 12-inch strands
 - buttons, ½ to ¾ inches in diameter
 - jute, the length you want for the gorlands, ollowing for knots

How to Make It

Cut photos to measure 2½ by 2½ inches; trim the edges with the pinking shears. For each ornament, cut a 3½ x 7-inch rectangle from brown paper and fold it to form a square. Cut one or two 31/4-inch squares from the print papers with pinking shears. Tape the photo and paper squares together, placing some on the diagonal, and tape them to the brown paper. Write the names, dates. and other information on the inside flap. Punch two holes close together at the top of the ornament. Thread the raffia through the holes, leaving a 2-inch loop on the back. Knot the loop at the back of the ornament. and thread the ends through a button: knot and trim the ends. Thread the jute through the loop, and tie it in place. Continue, tving an ornament every 4 or 5 inches.

Holiday Family Tree

Here's a tabletop centerpiece full of photo memories that go 'round and 'round. What a fun and colorful way to bring your family tree to life just in time for the holidau season!

What You'll Need

- trocing poper; two sheets each of 19¾ x25½-inch ocid-free green poper and medium-weight white poper
- poper punch
- double-sided tope or glue stick
- circle templote, 1½ inches in diometer
- photos
- ossorted colors of cordstock
- ¼-inch-wide ribbon, vorious colors

How to Make It

Enlarge the pattern shown on tracing paper; making a mirror image along the dashed line. From green paper, cut out one (complete) Tree C, one Tree B section, and one Tree A section. Using the punch, create a decorative edge along the scallops. Tape or glue each tree to white paper, and then cut the paper, leaving a narrow border along the scallops and a 1/2-inch tab along one straight edge of each tree. Using the circle template, cut out the photos. Referring to the pattern, tape or glue them to the tree sections. Cut circles 15% inches in diameter from cardstock, leaving a 1/4-inch square tab on each. Form each section into a cone, taping it on the inside. Place the cardstock circles above the photos by bending the tabs and taping them in place. Conceal the tabs with a bow. Stack the finished sections to form the tree

Picture Place Cards

There'll be no problems figuring out who sits where when each guest find himself as the star aton his own tree.

Use a different pattern of paper for each tree to make your table as full of personality as the people sitting around it

What You'll Need

For each tree:

- green-potterned poper, 8½ x 11 inches
- poper punch
- · photo of your quest
- · yellow cordstock for the stor
- glue stick
 - double-sided tope
- morker
 - yellow peorl cotton thread
- lorge-eye needle
- red beads
- plostic porty pick

How to Make It

Mark the paper every 11/4 inch along one short edge. Fold the paper back and forth in 11/4-inch pleats; cut away any excess. Fold the paper in half to form a tree. Punch a hole at the treetop, going through a few layers at a time. Reform the tree, and tape it on the back. Push the needle, threaded, through a pleat from the inside. Slip a bead on the thread, and tie it in place. Pull the thread loosely across the tree, and push the needle through a crease. Repeat to "trim" the tree. Cut out two stars from the cardstock. Glue a photo to one, and decorate the edges with a marker. Tape the tip of the party pick to one star back; tape on the other star. Slip the pick into the treetop.

Picture Place Mats

Memorable photos, favorite family activities, and seasonal sayings ake center stage on take center stage on these place mats that are sure to make holiday dinnertime even more special.

What You'll Need For each place mat:

- phatas
 - straight-edge scissors
 - decarative-edge scissars
 - sheet of paper, 11x14 inches
 - haliday stickers
 - dauble-sided tape
 - glue stick
 markers
 - marker:
 pencil

How to Make It

Design a photo collage on the paper. Try out some ideas with a pencil on scratch paper before deciding on your final design. If you like, do two separate designs, one for the kids and one for the adults. Cut out family photos > as outlines. Add holiday sayings, pictures from magazines, and stickers of things that relate to your family and their favorite pastimes. Make multiple copies of the finished design on a KODAK Picture Maker. Cut out the mats, using scissors with decorative edges.

Photo Plate Fun

have on your plate, family comes first! Put together a personalized

Whatever else you

holiday scene to set the stage for spirited conversation at the dinner table even before the food is served.

What You'll Need

- photos
- smoll, shorp scissors
- decorotive-edge scissors
- snowfloke poper punch
- colored popers
- morkers
- holidov die-cuts
- plostic plotes, one red and one clear
 - double-sided tope
 - glue stick

How to Make It

Cut out photos using both kinds of scissors, Punch snowflakes from colored papers. Write names, dates, and sayings on the diecuts. Create a collage on the red plate, arranging the photos and die-cuts and then taping them in place. Glue snowflakes over the collage. Top everything with the clear plate, securing it with double-sided tape or by stapling the edges of the plates together. Use your creation as a cookie platter that gets passed around the table, or make a separate plate for each guest.

Photo Delights

These delightful
"candles" featuring family photos will brighten up any holiday table. It's a novel way to give your dining room a special glow.

What You'll Need

- phato
- decarative-edge scissors
- stiff, colared paper, cut into an 8½ x 5½-inch rectangle
- yellaw cardstack
 - · 2 glitter stems, gald and any other calar
 - glue gun and glue sticks
 - empty film canister

How to Make It

Make a mark every 34 inch along one long edge of the paper. Fold the paper back and forth in accordion pleats at the marks. At each upside crease, cut the ends on the diagonal. Fold the paper in half, and pull out the top pleats to form half a starburst; tape the end pleats together where they meet. Do the same with the other side so you have a full starburst. Cut a decorative edge across the top of the photo. Roll the photo around an empty film canister, and tape it in place. Cut a flame from the cardstock, and coil a gold glitter stem to accent the flame. Tape the glitter stem and flame to the inside of the photo just above its point of highest interest. Glue the bottom of the rolled photo to the center of the starburst. Shape the other glitter stem into a handle; poke one end of it through a pleat. Glue it in place.

Personalized Dreidel

Play the dreidel game, and sing the dreidel song. It'll be even more fun when each spin might bring a player face-to-face with his or her own picture!

What You'll Need

- photos
- colored cardstock
- stroight-edge and decorotive-edge scissors
- double-sided tope
- stick-on letters
- holf-pint milk or juice corton (empty, clean, ond dry)
- bollpoint pen
- colored pencil
- curling ribbon

How to Make It

From the cardstock, cut one 2\% x 2\%-inch square for the bottom, two 3 x 41/4-inch rectangles for the sides, and the dreidel front and back, using the carton as a pattern. Cut out photos to fit on the sides, and tape them in place. Using the stick-on letters, add the dreidel words (Nun, Gimel, Hay, Shin) to the sides, front, and back. Carefully open the top of the carton. Tape the square to the bottom of the carton. Use the ballpoint pen to push a starter hole in the center bottom of the carton. Push the colored pencil through the hole and out the top. Tape the top closed on each side of the pencil. Tape the rectangles to the sides of the carton; add the front and back. Tie curling ribbon around the pencil.

Kwanzaa Scrolls

for a place card or favor for each guest at your Kvenzaa get-together. Let each person unroll a scroll and share the message. Family photos on the scrolls —and added to the scroll holders—give a personal touch.

Here's an idea

What You'll Need

- Black, green, red, and beige papers
- dauble-sided tape
- decarative-edge scissars
- assarted adhesive barders
- phata carners
- glue stick
- photas
- ane sheet af carrugated paper
- paper punch

How to Make Them

Use black or green paper for the background. Trim the top and bottom of another dark-colored paper, and tape it to the background. Print proverbs and the days of Kwamzaa on the beige paper—the top layer. (It should be cut shorter than the middle paper.) Tape it to the middle paper. Trim it with the adhesive borders or cutpaper trims. Use the photo corners and tape or glue to hold the photos in place.

For the scroll holder, cut a 5½x 8-inch rectangle from the corrugated paper. Cut a 2x2-inch tab on one short side. On the other short side, mark the tab slot by making a dot 1½ inche in from one long side and ½ inch in from the short edge. Repeat from the other long side. Punch a hole at each dot and a second set of holes ½ inch from the first set. Slift the paper between the sets of holes.

Bouquet of Friends

where they can't be missed—popping up from behind a sofa pillow, beckening you from a bookcase, poking out of a plant. What a way to welcome folks you haven't seen in a long time!

And once the kids get their hands on them, watch their imaginations kick in!

Tuck these colorful

stick figures in spots

What You'll Need

- photosscissors
- double-sided tape or glue stick
- 8½ x11-inch sheets of colored cordstock
- · norrow sotin cording, vorious colors
- Vs-inch-diometer dowel, cut into 12-inch lengths

How to Make Them

Make copies of your favorite photos on KODAK Picture Maker. Cut out the photos, and tape or give them to the cardstock. Trim around the photos, leaving a 1/4-inch border of cardstock. Wrap the cording around the dowels, securing the ends with tape or glue. Tape a dowel to the cardstock on the back side of each photo. Conceal the tape with a strip of matching cardstock. The cording into bows around the dowels.

Picture Maker Fun

Imagine being able to blow up, crop, print, frame, and add text to your images yourself—without having to visit a photo lab, a digital imaging studio, and a frame shop! Now you can, with KODAK Picture Maker. It's an easy-to-use, walk-up kiosk that allows you to custom-print your pictures just the way you want them—no matter what form the originals are in.

Reduce Red Eye
Pictures taken with a flash sametimes cause
"red eye"—in this case, an unnaturallaaking distraction to an atherwise great
photo. KODAK Picture
Maker's "Reduce Red Eye" command helps you get the red out
—without offseking
the colors in the rest of the photo. Amazing!

Add a Border Frame your photos an the spat with one of dazens of KODAK Picture Maker's builtin harders

Crop a Photo

Have you ever token a picture and wanted to print just a piece of it? That's called crapping, and prafessianal phatographers da it all the time. In fact, it's the key to great campositions. Naw, KODAK Picture Maker makes it easy for yau to zoom in an and print just what yau want ta see. Here, a shat af a child having fun in the snaw turns into an up-clase portrait.

Add Some Text Same pictures-like this ane—just beg for a caption, KODAK Picture Maker lets you add vaur awn. Pick the fant, size and calar yau'd like ta use and type away. Errars are easy to carrect, too!

tips & tidbits

- KODAK Picture Maker kiosks are located in 15,000 stores nationwide. Look for them at retailers that offer photofinishing. Or, call (800) 939-1302 or visit www.kodak.com/go/ picturemaker for the KODAK Picture Maker nearest you.
- A touch-screen and easy-tofollow prompts make mostering KODAK Picture Maker o breeze. (Tip: Tauch the screen with your fingers-not your fingemails.)
- No negatives? No problem! KODAK Picture Maker will work from prints 3" x 5" or larger, negatives, slides, digital camera discs, floppy discs and KODAK Picture CDs.
- KODAK Picture Maker prints your new photos on archivolquality paper, so they're great for making a long-lasting photo olbum. It even has a "restore" function that can bring fading images back to life.
- KODAK Picture Maker prints the new photos on high-quality paper. Becouse the paper is archival quality, KODAK Picture Moker is a good option for people creating scrapbooks.

Make and Give kitchen is a gift from your heart. The favorites you share will be all the more memorable when you wrap them in a way that says "We made these especially for you!"

Recipes for Giving

Not a pocket full of rye, but a pocket full of recipes makes a great gift to send to a friend far away or give to a neighbor.

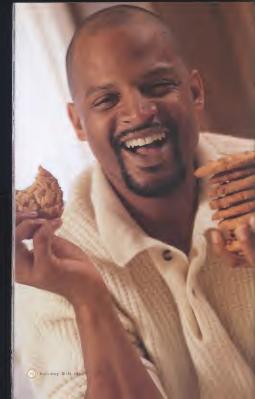

For an extra special touch, include a sample of the recipe. Yum!

What You'll Need For each pocket:

- photo
 - one sheet each of colored cordstock and cookie-print poper
 - · two sheets of white cordstock
 - morkers
- stroight-edge and decorative-edge scissors
- · stickers with a cooking or boking theme
- · double-sided tape or glue stick

How to Make It

For the pocket front, tape or glue the photo to a piece of colored cardstock cut just slightly larger than the photo. Put stickers on the photo. For the pocket back, cut graduated layers of the cookie-print, white, and colored papers. Even the smallest layer should be slightly larger than the pocket front. Tape or glue the layers together. Decorate the white layer with marking-pen dots. Tape or glue the front to the back on three sides. Print your recipe on white cardstock by hand or with a cool computer font. Make sure the recipe will slide inside your pocket. Fold it, if needed. Make a paper pull tab, and glue it to the recipe.

ookies for Kwanzaa baking-and sharing-peanutbutter cookies. Theu're classic favorites. If you like, add a holidau touch by drizzling melted semisweet chocolate pieces over them when they're cooled.

Stack up a pile of happy memories by

What You'll Need

- ½ cup butter or morgorine
- ½ cup peonut butter
- ½ cup gronuloted sugar
- ½ cup pocked brown sugor or ¼ cup honey
- ½ teospoon baking sodo ½ teospoon boking powder
- 1 eaa
- ½ teospoon vonillo
- 1¼ cups oll-purpose flour
- aronuloted sugar

How to Make Them

In a large mixing bowl, beat the butter or margarine and peanut butter with an electric mixer on medium to high speed for 30 seconds. Add the granulated sugar, brown sugar, baking soda and baking powder. Beat until combined, scraping the sides of the bowl occasionally. Beat in the egg and vanilla until combined. Beat in as much of the flour as you can with the mixer. Stir in the remaining flour. If necessary, cover and chill dough till it's easy to handle. Shape dough into 1-inch balls. Roll in additional granulated sugar. Place balls 2 inches apart on an ungreased cookie sheet. Flatten by making crisscross marks with a fork. Bake in a 375° oven for 7 to 9 minutes or until the bottoms are lightly browned. Cool cookies on a wire rack. Makes about 36 cookies.

Wrap It Up for Fun

These creative labels say "From My Kitchen to Yours" in a unique way.

They're sure to brighten up anyone's day.

What You'll Need

- phatas
- paper, ane sheet each af red and red-and-white checked for the jar label, and ane sheet each af red, red-and-white checked, and white for the bag label
- glue stick
 - dauble-sided tape
 - stick-an letters far the jar label
 - hally stickers, paper punch, decarative-edge scissors, and ribban far the bag label

How to Make Them

Jar label:

Cut a 2½-inch-wide strip of the checked paper and a 1½-inch-wide strip of the red paper long enough to fit around your jar. Clue the strips together, and tape on a photo cut into an outline. Add the wording for the label with the strick-on letters. Tape everything to the iar.

Bag label:

Cut a 3 x 5%-inch rectangle from the red paper. Make diagonal cuts on one short end. Glue it to the checked paper and cut the corners again. With decorative-edge scissors, cut a 2% x 4%-inch white rectangle. Glue it to the tag. Add the photo, stickers and a design made with the markers. Punch a hole in the tag, and thread it with the ribbon.

*M*anukkah Heritage

Latkes, or crisp and tasty potato pancakes, are part of the Hanukkah tradition along with lighting the menorah and enjoying family. Let the kids shred the potatoes, Mom mix the ingredients, and Dad form and fry the latkes.

What You'll Need

- 4 medium pototoes (obout 1½ lb.)
- · 3 Tbsp. rendered chicken fot (schmoltz)
- · 2 slightly beoten eggs
- · 2 cloves garlic, finely minced
- ½ tsp. solt
- · 2 Tbsp. cooking oil
- your fovorite toppings

How to Make Them

Peel and finely shred the potatoes. In a mixing bowl, combine the potatoes with the chicken fat, eggs, garlic and salt. Using 1/2 cup mixture for each latke, press the mixture into patties about the size of the palm of your hand, squeezing out any excess liquid.

In a large skillet, heat the oil over medium-high heat. Carefully slide the patties into the hot oil. Cook the latkes over medium-high heat about 2 minutes or until they are golden brown, turning them once.

Repeat with the remaining batter. Add additional oil during cooking, as needed. If necessary, reduce the heat to medium to prevent overbrowning. Drain on paper towels and keep warm. Serve with sour cream or other toppings. if you like. Makes about 10 latkes.

The cooties will go away, but the picture will last for generations.

For the brightest, sharpest pirtures that look in color and resist wear and tear, choose new

PRESENT THIS COUPON WHEN YOU PICK UP YOUR PICTURES do to see 200 aft his most film investigate, (seven wild set) an IDINA Pharma Pharmaging to Size and define the picture of the pharmaging to Size and wild investigate of the pharmaging to Size and Size and Size and Cappan visit of investigate or problem by law. Ro private properties and his law of the picture of the pharmaging time. You private properties and his law of the picture of law of the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture of picture of the Company (Tex Cappan) and the picture of the picture for the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture for the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture for the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture for the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture for the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture of the picture for the picture of the pictur SAVE $2 on

The most durable, sharpest pictures ever.

At Kodak we care about your memories so much...

We'll pay you to take

NEW KODAK ADVANTIX T700 Zoom Camera

- · Illtra-compact design
- · 2X zoom lens · Flip Flash
- · Weatherproof

MAIL-IN REBATE / EXPIRES 3/01/2001 Get 500 back by mail when you purchase a select* KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Camera

Purchase: KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Carnera

One rebate per household, address, group or organization.

Mail to: $50 ADVANTIX Zoom Carnera Trade-Up P.O. Box 5521 Young America, MN 55558-5521 "Salact KOBAK ADVANTIX Zoom Camera models are: F600, C650, C700, C750, C800, T700, 5800 and 4900

- . Completed original rebate certificate
- . Copy of original cash register receipt for camera dated between 11/01/2000 and 3/01/2001 . UPC barcode symbol from outer camera package
- . Requests must be received by 4/01/2001

© Eastman Kodak Company, 2000 Kodak, Advants and Take Pictures. Further as

Get $50 back when you move up to select* KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Cameras

KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Cameras Take Pictures. Further.. Memories. From the milestones to the little moments that make life special. Kodak cares about your memories, and more importantly, your memories in pictures. For more than 100 years, Kodak has been committed to belping you take consistently better pictures every day.

A NEW level of simplicity, consistency...and fun — KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Cameras, ADVANTIX Film and Photofinishing equipment can 'talk' to each other about the technical details of every picture you shoot. KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Cameras take the guesswork out of taking grean pictures.

KODMA ADVANTX Zoom Contents for every lifestyle — Waterproof cameras that can handle adventure. Compact cameras that fit in your pocket. Cameras with the "Flip Flash" system for the best red-eye reduction available. The KODAK ADVANTIX Camera shown here lets you get even closer to the moment with advanced zoom lens technology. And all KODAK ADVANTIX Cameras feature the 3-picture format function of the Advanced Photo System (APS). So, now you can capture the memories you want — the way you want.

Kodak will give you $50 back when you purchase a select* new KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Camera,

If you've been thinking about upgrading your APS or 35 mm camera, use the $50 mail-in rebate certificate to make more memories and take better pictures!

Find out more about KODAK ADVANTIX Zoom Cameras and the Advanced Photo System on the next page and at www.kodak.com. Or call us at 1-800-242-2424.

"Select KODAN ADMINITIE Zoom Camera models are IF000, 0650, 0700, 0750, 0800, 1700, 5600 and 4900.

What is the Advanced Photo System?

The Advanced Photo System (APS) - allows KODAK

ADVANTIX Cameras and Film to 'talk' to each other about the technical details of every shot you take. These cameras take the guesswork out of taking great pictures – indoors, outdoors and in low light or action stuations. RODAK ADVANTIX Joom Cameras and ADVANTIX Film make it possible for you to make fewer errors and get more great pictures per roll. And only the Advanced Photo System allows you a choice of three different picture sizes!

With KODAK ADVANTIX Cameras, simply drop the ADVANTIX Film cassette into the camera and close the lid. The camera does the rest. No more misloaded film

Pictures your wa

Before you shoot, KODAK ADVANTIX Cameras allow you to choose from three pictures sizes: "C" for classic 4" x 6" pictures; "H" for group 4" x 7" pictures; and "P" for panoramic 4" x 11" pictures.

More positives from the negatives

When you get your pictures back, you'll get beautiful prints, a negative "cassette" and an "index print" – featuring thumbnail prints of each picture you took. It's easy to order reprints, Just match the ID number on the index print and take your negatives – safe in the original cassette – to the photofinisher for reprints or enlargements. You can even choose to have prints changed to a different format – for instance, get a picture shot in classic, reprinted as a panoramic.

Ask your retailer of KODAK Products to help you select or apgradeto the ADMAIN Zoom Camera that matches your lifestyle. Or visit www.kodak.com and try our interactive section that will help you determine which KODAK ADMAINZ Zoom Camera is right for you. Find out even more about the Advanced Photo System at www.APSmeurs.com.

ADVANTIX

Gapture the moment.

Ind the mood.

Try KODAK Black & White + 400 Film

Save $1.00

on a single roll of KODAK Black & White + 400 Film

Offer not valid no trial rolls

nd Stationery

Take a little extra time to add a personal touch to your holiday correspondence this year. What better way to let your family and friends know how much you cherish them!

Great Greeting Card

This year, make a holiday greeting card that's a mixedmedia message starring your family. You'll have fun coming up with just the right picture to fit the card. Or, gather everyone together and strike a pose for the camera. Say cheese!

What You'll Need

- 12 x12-inch piece of snowfloke embossed poper
- 8½ x11-inch piece of white cordstock
- photos
- block morker
- glue stick
- scrop of oronge paper
 tiny twias

How to Make It

Using the pattern shown, cut the left and center pages in one piece from the embossed paper; cut the right page from the cardstock. Fold the card along the dashed lines. Tage the right-page tab to the center. Add your photos and a greeting. Glue a paper-carrot nose on the snowmans face, and draw coal-black features and buttons. Tage the twigs in place for the arms.

*H*oliday Letters

Here are two good ways to let your friends and relatives truly share in the special events of your family over the past year.

As an extra touch, use coordinating envelopes and trim the flaps on them with decorative-edge scissors.

What You'll Need

- phatas
- assarted decarative edge scissars
- dauble-sided tape
- glue stick
- paper, an 8½x11-inch sheet each af blueand-white cardstack and snowflake paper far the newsletter, 8½x11-inch sheets af haliday-print papers, and a sheet af white cardstock for the stationery
- snowflake paper punch, blue marker, and red stick-an letters
- ¼-inch-wide grasgrain ribban

How to Make Them

Newsletter:

Cut out photos of your past year's activities, and tape or glue them to the blue cardstock. Then tape or glue them onto the white cardstock. Using decorative-edge scissors, make borders wide enough to add notes with a marker and the stick-on letters. Punch out blue snowflakes and affix everything to the snowflake paper. Make reprints on KODAK Picture Maker to send; keep your original for your scrapbook.

Stationery:

Using the scissors, cut out narrow trims for the paper's borders. Glue the trims, ribbon, and a family photo to the cardstock. Make copies of your finished page.

Inviting Invitation

With its special packaging, this clever invitation. says your whole family is looking forward to welcoming your > guests to a one-of-a-kind celebration

What You'll Need

- phatas
- typing paper
- 8½ x11-inch piece af yellaw cardstock
- coardinating ribban and baw
- dauble-sided tape
- · scraps of green and white paper for tag
- red marker

How to Make It

Compose your invitation on typing paper: fold it into three sections so that the top and bottom flaps slightly overlap a wide middle section. Be sure to allow room to attach photos to the bottom flap. When you're happy with the composition, print the invitation on the cardstock. (The words should appear on the inside of the top and middle sections.) Cut out the photos so that the tops are outlines. Glue or tape the photos to the bottom edge of the cardstock so they'll be visible when the invitation is opened. Glue a strip of ribbon over the raw edges of the photos on the inside of the invitation. Fold up the invitation, and glue on a ribbon and bow to make it look like a wrapped gift.

Make a tag with the green and white paper scraps. Write "To Your Family" in big red letters on the tag. Inside the invitation, write "From Ours" on the corner. Tape the tag beneath the bow

Memories

Once you start designing your personalized gift wraps, tags and bows, there'll be no stopping you.
And on Christmas morn,
your gifts will be
attention-getters
even before they're opened!

Personalized Paper

Even if you're someone who usually doesn't enjoy the task of varapping gifts, you'll find it fun when you use this personalt:ed paper. It's perfect for small packages and box tops, and those on the receiving end will treasure it. They may even save the star tags

as keepsake

ornaments.

What You'll Need

- photos
- stroight- and decorative-edge scissors
- 11x14-inch sheet of plain poper
- holidoy die-cuts and stickers
- poper with ossorted holidoy prints
 double-sided tope or glue stick

For the star tag:

- stor cookie cutter
- · cordstock, red or green
- gold thread

How to Make Them

Gift wrap:

On the plain paper, design a collage from the photos, stickers, die-cuts, and pieces of the paper. Add names and sayings with markers. Make reprints on KODAK Picture Maker.

Star tag:

Trace two stars on the printed paper; cut them out. Draw a large circle in the center of each star, and cut out. Glue one star to the cardstock, and cut out the center circle. Cut the cardstock into the star shape with decorative-edge scissors, leaving a narrow border. Cut a circle slightly smaller than the first circles from cardstock, and tape a 6-inch thread across its center. Cut two photos into circles; tape or glue one to each side of the cardstock circle. Tage the thread ends to the star, tape on the remaining print-paper star.

Take a Bow

"Is that for me?"

It's no surprise when you use an adorable photo wrapped up in a bow right on the package. Even the youngest child will know

whose gift it is.

What You'll Need

- tracing paper
- dauble-sided tape
- a variety of printed papers to line the baw (aptianal)
- phata-trimmed paper (see the directions far the place mats, page 15, and the wrapping paper, page 51)
- decarative-edge scissars
- phata af the person wha will be receiving the aift
- salid-calar cardstack.

How to Make It

Trace the pattern shown on tracing paper, making a mirror image of the pattern along the center line. Cut it out. To line the bow. tape the printed paper to the photo-trimmed paper. Using the pattern, cut out four loops. Fold the short edges of each loop to the center, securing them with tape. Layer the bows, one on top of the other, again securing them with tape. Cut out the photo, and glue it to the cardstock; then cut out the shape on the cardstock, leaving a narrow border. Cut a 1x8-inch strip from the lined paper, and tape the center of it to the center of the bow. Fold the ends of the strip into the center, forming two loops. Tape them together with the photo in between.

Tag—You're It

Create a winter scene from a favorite photo encased in plastic. Add free-falling snowflakes for special effects, Wau cool!

What You'll Need

- phatas
- straight- and decorative-edge scissars
- dauble-sided tape ar glue
- curling ribban
- snawflake punch
- blue glitter paper
- snowflake-print paper
- clear acetate
- crafts knife
- canfetti
 white cardstack

How to Make It

Cut out the photo with sharp scissors. Punch snowflakes from the glitter paper. Cut a rectangular background from the snowflake paper. Place the rectangle on the acetate, and score around it with the crafts knife. Remove the paper; then cut out the acetate ½ inch beyond the scored lines. Fold it on the scored lines and miter-cut the corners. Slip the acetate around the background, placing the photo, snowflakes and confetti inside. Don't tape or glue them—you're going for the snow-globe effect! Tape the scene to white cardstock, slipping ribbon ties between the scene and the cardstock. Trim the cardstock with decorative-edge scissors.

Musical Wrap-ture

The thank-yous will be on a grand scale when you create this personalized packaging for a CD
or a gift of money.

What You'll Need

- photos
- decorotive-edge scissors
- circle punch
- double-sided tope

For money envelope:

 5½x10-inch rectongle each of black poper and sheet music

For CD envelope:

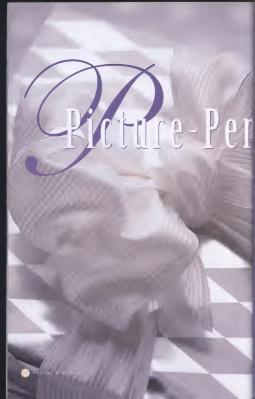

- 12x12-inch piece of printed poper
- 1x6-inch scrop of a coordinating paper
- crofts knife and ribbon

How to Make It

Place a CD on the wrong side of paper. Tracing around it, extend the square with a flap 4½ inches long at the top and 2½-inch flaps on each of the other sides. Cut out the shape with the decorative-edge scissors. Tape the band of coordinating paper under the edge of the top flap. Fold the envelope around the CD, taping the bottom flap to the side flaps. Cut out the photo. Using the crafts knife, make two parallel slits in the photo. Wrap the ribbon around the CD, slip the ribbon ends into the slits from the back of the photo, and tie them in a knot.

enlarge ta 819%

fect Presents

take on a new life in these special, wearable gifts. The hard part is deciding whether they're more fun to make or to get. Either way, you're bound for big hugs.

Sweetheart Sweats

Wear your heart on your sleeve. Wear your niece on your heart. Wear your mom on your shoulder. Wear a smile on your smile on your front—you get the idea!

What You'll Need

- photos
- package of iron-on heat-tronsfer poper for color copiers
 - white sweatshirt
 - woshoble fobric alue
- · lengths of grosgroin ribbon in ossorted colors
- stor buttons

How to Make It

Go to a store with a KODAK Picture Maker, and ask the personnel to help you make a transfer. Be sure to ask for mirror images of your photos. Follow the directions on the heat-transfer-paper package to iron the images onto your sweatshirt. Glue strips of ribbon around each photo, and trim each one with a bow. Sew on the buttons.

alendar of Events

you'll be reminded how special your family is. Let everyone in on the fun of creating the calendar pages. For example, the birthday child gets to pick the photos for his or her birthday month. Here's a family project where the enjoyment truly lasts a whole year long.

Day in and day out,

What You'll Need

- · blank colendor pages (available at photocopy stores)
- photos
- die-cuts
- photo borders
 - stickers and sticky borders ocid-free odhesive
 - adhesive from dats
- double-sided tope
- glue stick
- paper punches, stor and tree shapes
- markers

How to Make It

Decorate the calendar pages with photos, die-cuts, stickers, and borders to draw attention to your special events of the year. To give your pages a bit of dimension, affix some items with foam dots. Use the paper punches to punch out photos in the shapes of tree and stars. Glue some to a Christmas tree die-cut and others to other die-cut shapes to mark special days. Have the calendar bound and laminated at the photocopy store.

Verrific Tassels

Your family stars can shine from every corner of the house during the holiday season. Create more tassels to give awau as gifts-a perfect choice for those with limited room to decorate

What You'll Need

- · tasseled cording, cut into 32-inch lengths
- gold alitter poper
- printed popers
- solid-colored cordstock
- double-sided tope or alue stick
- odhesive foom dots
 - decorotive-edge scissors
- photos

How to Make Them

Cut two 41/4 x 41/4-inch squares from the printed or solid paper. Place one square wrong side up and on the diagonal. Fold the tasseled cord in half, and tape it to the square, creating a 5-inch-long hanging loop at one corner. Using the adhesive dots, attach the other square over the cord. Tie a knot in the loop near the corner. Using the decorative-edge scissors, cut a 4 x 4-inch square from the printed paper or cardstock. Tape a photo to this square. Glue the square to glitter paper, and trim it with the decorative-edge scissors. Tape the photo square to the tasseled square to form an eight-point star.

Frame of Fame

Surround the central character with a circle of his favorites, selected from people, pastimes and pets. If you like, give such as a year in school or a memorable family reunion.

your frame a theme,

What You'll Need

- photos
- picture frome
- scissors, shorp stroight-edge and decorative-edge
- double-sided tope
- ocid-free odhesive foom dots
- glue gun and glue sticks
- ossorted minioture toys and trinkets

How to Make It

Place one photo in the picture frame. Cut out the remaining photos. Attach them to the frame and the glass with the tape and foam dots. (The foam dots will give dimension to the photos.) Use the glue gun to add the toys and trinkets.

icture Pin-up dig in your wallet for photos of the kids when you can show them off with pride right on your lapel. Make this unique piece of jewelry for yourself to wear at holiday get-togethers. Or, give one to an aunt or grandmother. It'll be her favorite present.

There's no need to

What You'll Need

- · 2 spowflake die-cuts
- markers
- acid-free adhesive foam dats
- scissors phatas
- · alue stick
- dauble-sided tape
- white cardstack
- printed paper
- gald thread pinback
- alue aun and alue sticks

How to Make It

Decorate the snowflakes with markers, and stick them together using a double layer of foam dots. Trim the dots as needed. Cut out the photos. Glue or tape them to cardstock, and cut the cardstock to shape, leaving a narrow border. With the printed paper, make a third shape slightly larger than the cardstock, and glue it behind the cardstock. Cut out a matching back from the printed paper. Glue the photo fronts to the backs. also gluing a long gold thread between them at the top. Tie the threads to the pinback at the desired lengths. Using the glue gun, attach the pinback to the snowflake.

Friendship Necklace

Sometimes it's okay to string your friends along,
especially if it means you'll be reminded of them
all day long.
This project also would make a fun activity for a holiday party or for visiting cousins who like to chatter and giggle while they work.

What You'll Need

- photos
- glue stick
- sheets of colored cordstock
- circle punch
- pony beods
- %-inch-diometer cording, long enough to make a necklace
- lorge-eye blunt needle

How to Make It

For the photo "charms," cut out the photos and glue them to cardstock. Leave a narrow border around the photos and enough extra cardstock at the top to punch a hole. Punch a hole in each charm. Slip a few beads and then one charm onto one end of the cording, and push them toward the other end. Using the needle, thread the cording back through the pony bead nearest the charm. Add a few more beads and then a charm, and thread the charm with cording as before. Repeat until the necklace is the length you want it to be. Knot the ends of cording.

Giving

A holiday gift from KODAK is truly the gift that keeps on giving. Frame a treasured photograph. Give Slip a roll of film stocking. The endless!

Fashionable Frames

When you stack up an your haliday phatography needs this year, you'll get a banus that will give your photos a place of praminence. For every value-pack of Kadak Max 400-speed film or Kadak Max Flash ane-time-use camera yau buy, yau'll get a special editian picture frame featuring a holiday image by Narman Rackwell, ane af America's mast beloved artists. Handpainted with a silver ar gald finish, each frame includes a numbered certificate of outhenticity. The limited-ovailability frames con be faund at selected retailers; suggested retail price is $9.99.

Border Patrol

Far a quick stacking stuffer nathing beats o favarite phata framed with a festive border made on the KODAK Picture Maker, a self-service kiask lacated in mare than 15,000 stares natianwide. Chaase fram a wide range of holiday and everyday barders that jazz up plain phatas. While you're at it, you con add a special message, enlarge the phata ta an 8"x10" print, "restare" an ald phata ar create pastagestamp-size stickers. KODAK Picture Maker is perfect far the haliday rush: Yau can create duplicate prints (no negatives needed!), make fancy barders and mare in just minutes. Suggested retail price is $7.99.

Diaital Delights

Imagine snapping o picture of the kids on Christmas marning, then seeing the results just minutes later. It's passible with Kadak digital products, Egger begyers will lave the ease of the Kadak DC3400. zaam digital camera, which delivers quality prints as large as 8"x10". Through a simple computer cannectian, you can download, gragnize and email pictures without waiting far film to be processed. Dan't have a camputer? Simply insert the camera's memary card into the Kadak Personal Picture Maker 200 by Lexmork. With the tauch of a few buttans, the printer even lets you crop photos or add barders and text-all without a camputer, (Of caurse, it warks with camputers, too.) Use Kadak Premium Picture Paper far phatas yau can enjay far a lifetime. Suggested retail price is $599 for the camera and $299 for the printer.

TURN SPECIAL MOMENTS INTO GREAT GIFTS-

IN JUST 5 MINUTES.

KODAK Picture Maker

- ▶ ENLARGES ▶ CROPS
- ENHANCES COLOR BRIGHTENS
- ADDS TEXT MAKES REPRINTS
- Do this by yourself with your favorite pictures-
- no negatives or experience necessary Call 1-B00-939-1302 for the Picture Maker nearest you or go to kodak.com/go/picturemaker

in just 5 minutes

with the KODAK Picture Maker

Bring in a picture today.

© Eastman Kedak Company, 2000 Kodak and Take Pictures. Further, are trademarks of Eastman Kedak Company

If you're looking for something special for the person who has everything, want to get your teen storted in photography or need to upgrade the family comero, the

Kodok Advontix Comero Holidoy Gift Box is one cool gift. It's octually several gifts in one: a Kodok Advontix camero and film.

or comero strop, o mailoble picture frome and coupons for ways to store or share photos. Recipients will love the comero's easy Advanced Photo System (APS) behanology, including error-free drop-in film loading and on index print that lets you view photos without squinting at negatives. Suggested retail prices range from $54.99 to $209.99, depending on the comero model. The pock pictured, which includes or 1550 comero, cast $99.99.

VANTIX

Pictures with Pizzazz Hondmode for the holidoys just got eosier. From gift togs and cords to comments and decorotions, the Holidoy Creations KODAK Picture CD gives you fun, festive options for your photos. Get creative by odding holidoy borders or personalized messages to photos. It's simple! When you drop off o roll of film for processing, just check the KODAK Picture CD box on the processing envelope. You'll get your prints bock, olong with a KODAK Picture CD that includes the bonus Holidoy Creations software. For a free copy of the Holidoy Creations KODAK Picture CD demo, call 1-800-979-8268.

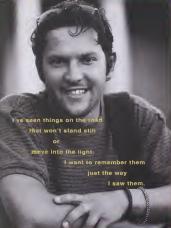

For More Information...

To find out more about the gift ideas featured here—plus a wealth of other ideas—visit the Kodak website at www.kodak.com. Or, call the toll-free Kodak Information Center at 1-800-242-2424.

Kodak Max film:

Now with better color, Kodak's maximum versatility film gives you great pictures in sunlight, low light, action or still it's all you need to know about film.

AKE PICTURES, FURTHER!"

Traditional holiday decorations will take on a unique, personalized sparkle when you combine them with your favorite family photos.

Deck the halls!

$2.99

Better Your Home